the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million (1990–1999) and is projected to increase by a further 1.5 million by 2010 (Office for National Statistics 2000). The number of people aged 65 and over is projected to increase by 2.5 million by 2020 (Office for National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the health care needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (1999) has identified the need to develop a new approach to the care of the ageing population. This approach should be based on the principles of 'active ageing', which is defined as 'the process of optimising the health, participation and security of older people' (Department of Health 1999, p. 1). The Department of Health (1999) has identified a number of key areas for action in order to achieve this goal. These include: (1) improving the health of older people; (2) promoting the participation of older people in society; and (3) ensuring the security of older people.

The Department of Health (1999) has also identified a number of key areas for action in order to improve the health of older people. These include: (1) promoting healthy lifestyles; (2) preventing disease and disability; (3) providing early diagnosis and treatment; and (4) providing high quality care and support. The Department of Health (1999) has also identified a number of key areas for action in order to promote the participation of older people in society. These include: (1) promoting social inclusion; (2) promoting active citizenship; and (3) promoting the participation of older people in decision making.

The Department of Health (1999) has also identified a number of key areas for action in order to ensure the security of older people. STUDENT LIFE plays an important part of the social activities at NHS.

Capture NHS Life!

STUDENT LIFE! Just the thought of it brings to mind ... Because we spend most of our time at Northridge (approx. 7 hours a day WOW, thats a lot!), anything related to school can be considered "Student Life". The daily traffic and locker dilemma's (How many times does your locker open on the first try?), all of us experience these things. "Student Life" is where we share our common experiences, our special days, our happy moments, and our tragedies.

STUDENT LIFE REACHES BEYOND SCHOOL GROUNDS!

Even after the school day is done, students enjoy spending time with their friends. In a recent survey, NHS students were asked where they like to hang out. Students, the survey showed, enjoy many different types of activities. Pizza is our favorite food. Sixty-five percent of our students said that they preferred Pizza Hut pizza. For a burger and fries, Burger King came in first with 41%. The popular place to dance is the dance club Tippy's by 82%. Other activities that we found that students enjoy is cruising Elkhart, going to the mall, the movies, or hanging out at a friend's house.

LET'S RELAX! Jen Utley, Gary Lehman, SueAnn Vonblon, Thad Stoner and Anthony Schrock relax with Ronald McDonald on their way back from Stratford, Canada.

FRUSTRATION! Marcy McCranner and Kristan Hostetler show a little frustration and as they watch from the bench during a varsity Volleyball game.

Ski Club members were fortunate enough to have ski lift facilities, and they were glad, too, because skiing uphill is much harder than skiing downhill.

Once again, the Northridge Ski Club gathered on Wednesdays for some fun downhill skiing action at Swiss Valley. It looked as if the club was in trouble early in the season because of the late snow, but mother nature came to the rescue and turned the slopes into a winter wonderland.

Natural Helpers

Natural Helpers is a peer support group that was new at Northridge this year. It is made up of a group of people that are concerned and willing to help other students their own age with life's everyday problems. The main function of Natural Helpers is to give support, encourage confidence, and to improve the environment at Northridge. This group has had a positive effect this year and hopes to continue next year.

Winter Semi-Formal

Students are often overcome with the mid-season blahs that are common between Christmas and Spring Break. This year the National Honor Society strategically planned it's winter semi-formal to help eliminate some of these blues.

Approximately ninety couples donned their best attire and enjoyed a romantic dinner before making their way to the 1992 semi-formal.

There was much planning and lots of hard work done by the National Honor Society dance committee before the leap day dance took place. The committee was chaired by Erica Horne and consisted of Amy Martin, Janae Martin, and Jodi Rychner. After approximately four hours of decorating on Saturday morning and early afternoon, the dance committee as well as other National Honor Society members transformed our cafeteria into a ballroom of purple, black, and silver with cascading streamers and balloons. Members of NHS also provided cookies and punch to accent the refreshment table.

Music and entertainment were provided by guest DJ's Tom Pletcher and Matt Yeater who played a mix of everything from "2 Legit to Quit" by Hammer to "Save the Best for Last" by Vanessa Williams.

The entertainment, decorations, refreshments, and festive attire all combined for an exciting night filled with elegant ambience.

HOMECOMING

N
III

Orthridge Homecoming is one of the most eagerly awaited events on the social calendar, and this year was no exception. The homecoming candidates were selected, the floats were assembled. Then the big night came. "Raider Pride" was the theme for the float parades; the seniors took first place with their masterpiece entitled, "We're on a Roll".

Scott Miller and Margaret Frey were voted senior King and Queen; both were happy to oblige. Homecoming was preceded, as usual, by spirit week, which got everyone "pepped" for Friday night. The crowds gathered, the teams fought valiantly, and everybody had a good time.

"Unforgettable"

The Junior Class welcomed the Seniors to the 1992 Junior-Senior Prom held Saturday evening May twenty-third from eight o'clock until midnight. Together they celebrated the closing of their years at Northridge.

The attending couples danced to music provided by a D.J. Movie screens were setup to display music videos while participants danced. Most couples participated in the garter dance where the gentleman removed the lady's garter from her leg. The lady took the gentleman's bow tie. At 10:30 the 1992 Prom Senior King and Queen were crowned, followed by the crowning of the Junior royalty. Senior class colors are silver and powder blue; the class flower is an Ivory Rose; the class motto: "Dreams Are For A Moment, But Memories are Forever".

NLC CHAMPS

Cross Country Team Does Well

The 1991 Northridge Raider Boys Cross Country team had a very successful season by posting 11-3 record and winning the NLC conference championship. The Raiders also did very well in other events as they placed 5th at the Fort Wayne Northrop Invitational, first in the New Prairie Invitational and placed second at the Fort Wayne Snider Classic and Lakeland Invitational. Northridge also finished 4th at Sectionals and placed 9th in Regionals. Ryan McClane was team captain, and Josh Fletcher was M.V.P.

SWINGERS

Golf Swings Into Season

The Northridge Golf team is coached by Tom Crews. The home course is Oak Hills.

The varsity team is averaging around 180 strokes per round of nine holes. They get this number by adding the scores up and disregarding the highest individual score. The lowest score is called the "low medalist."

Coach Crews stated, "The most consistent, and best player is Jeff Berry." When asked what the hardest thing to teach was, Crews replied "Getting players to do what they need to do and not what they want to do." Mr. Crews continued, "The future looks good for the Northridge Golf Team. We have four to ten players that have promising futures if they keep working on their game."

RECORD SETTING SEASON

Buck places at State Finals

The 1991-92 Northridge wrestling season ended with a new school record for the most wins in one season, as the Raiders posted a 11-13 record. The Raiders improved in many areas from a year ago by placing sixth in the NLC conference tournament and fourth in Sectionals. Northridge was led by team captain Chris Buck at 171 lbs., who set a new school record for the most wins in one season with a 40-5 record. Chris became the third Raider in history to win the Regional championship, and the only Raider to place at the State Finals, where he placed 7th.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Students talk about theatre

"In drama, you can make new friends, act and dress like someone else, and wear some really great make up!" — Amy Troyer

"It's amazing how much you can give by being in a musical or drama and to mention: the fun!" — Scott Miller

A "knock 'em dead" dress worn by Amy Martin shocks Scott Miller and Corbett Troyer.

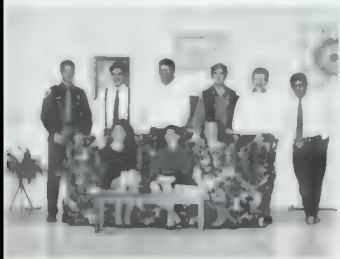

Scott Miller and Corbett Troyer two step across the stage.

Danny Gentarlin (Jason Bontrager) shares an intimate moment with Katie Brown (Angela Rida).

Bill Hickock (Scott Miller) listens as Calamity Jane (Karl Hoffman) states her opinion.

Between scenes Anthony Shrock, Sheri Gardner and Angela Troyer pop a quart.

Cast of the fall play "Never Too Late": Randy Perry, Amy Martin, Jason Bontrager, Julie Miller, Scott Miller, David Grondz, Amy Troyer, Roy DePompeo, and Corbett Troyer.

A Look Of Despair: Coach Craig Jackson, Christina Wantz, Lara Rust, Jami Pecker, Jill Kauffman, Diana Green, and Misty Weeks give a look of despair as the other team gains a point.

Hunk, Hunk, Hunk: Rochell Yoder and Jackie Charatte practice their solo and ensemble duet.

Jump For Joy: Debbie Green seems to enjoy herself as she jumps the hurdles in P.E.

Are We Having Fun Yet? Mike Rankin, Derek Halsey, Brian Kline, Randy Kwilinski, Andy Blake, Adam Bradford, and Chuck Eysel look enthused as they listen to a speech given in P.E.

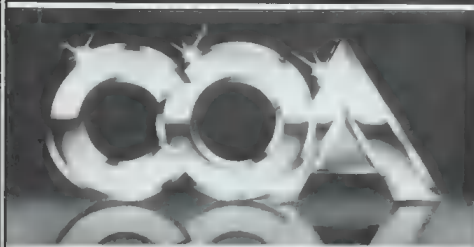

Excited: Scott Shriner is definitely excited about being in P.E.

Congratulations Seniors of '92

Through your hard work and dedication, you've reached a goal — graduation. Of course, there will be many more challenges to meet.

At Coachmen Industries we've reached goals made years ago, but still strive to reach those made yesterday. It's how we grow as a company.

You, too, should persist in your efforts to make the dreams of today the reality of tomorrow. By constantly reaching for those goals, you will ensure a prosperous future.

So Good. So Fast. So Cheap.

These days, if food is good, it's not so fast. If it's fast, it's not so good. And if it's good and fast, it usually costs too much. At Hot 'n Now, we have a surprise for you. Food that's good and fast and cheap. It's not a new idea. It's an old idea most fast food places have forgotten. We just remembered, that's all.

1991-1992 YEARBOOK STAFF

Yvette Baltazar — author of "Top Romantic Songs" and editor of The Shield's page photographs pages most enjoyed photo development. Yvette plans to continue writing and using her photography skills as a hobby. Advice to new staff: "Stay on task!"

Janet Evans — extensively contributed to the layout of ads. Janet's dedication and creativity resulted in the Shield's advertising pages. Janet suggests that next year's staff divide the job pages so more students can learn this skill. Janet plans to continue to apply her skills professionally.

Tammy Neice — author of a feature article "Janet's Truck" and creator of The Shield's "Cheerleading" page. Tammy plans to continue to use her photography and computer skills as a hobby. Tammy suggests that next year's staff "Be on time when turning in pages!"

Heather Miller — author of "Club President" — Diane Strick — editor of The Shield's Current Events pages, and producer of "Parents' Pages." Heather will continue to apply her talent at Bethel College's yearbook. Advice to next year's staff: "Stick with it!"

Amber Roadruck — Lance Editor — master of "Page Maker" — hopes to continue to apply her knowledge at Huntington College. A published poet, many students have read her contributions to The Lance. Amber fulfilled her layout requirements excellently with musical and play pages.

Amy Troyer — author of "Rus- sia Trip '91" and producer of all band pages and the semi-formal dance pages in The Shield. Amy established a bookkeeping system for the Mass Comm class. Amy intends to keep using her photography and computer knowledge in her future activities.

Kim Wiesman — "Ask Kim" were two words heard every day. Author of "Top Ten Gifts" and responsible for the Business Pages in The Shield, Kim knew how to help everyone. Kim sold ads, Kim typed copy, Kim developed pictures, Kim wrote stories, and Kim helped everyone. Thanks, Kim!

Glorie Cavila — author of articles "Boys Tennis" and "Expression." An example of Glorie's excellent layout talent is found on the Shield's Social Studies pages. Glorie plans to continue to write and apply her photography talent professionally.

Melinda Gruber — The Shield's basketball coverage was the responsibility of Melinda. Her skill in the selection and layout of photographs and copy are best seen there. Looking back, Melinda reported she most enjoyed the developing photographs.

Maggie Merchant — a leader in ad sales and author of "Loveaway Volunteers." Maggie is most proud of her layout on Swim Teams. Maggie enjoyed photography and dark room work the most and plans to continue to use these skills.

Tom Fletcher — a photographer whose excellent photographs appear through The Shield and an author of "Making A's." Tom enjoyed taking pictures of friends and airing out Ski Club pages. Tom warns the incoming staff not to fall in love with a rough draft — it will be edited!

Jeff Sibrt — Sports Editor — author of many sports articles and responsible for the excellent wrestling pages in The Shield. Jeff will continue to write sports articles for his college newspaper. Jeff suggests next year's staff "have things done on time!"

Linda Stahnke — Created "Seniors in Color." Using difficult hand layout, Linda drew each page. She also kept her classmates up-to-date on fashion with articles for "The Lance." While graduates celebrated, Linda returned to include all your photos of graduation.

Thanks to: Karrie Bromley, Warren Fosse, Celeste Miller, Stacy Miller, Stephanie Riegsecker, Amy Bates, Kim Humble, and Josh Bowlby.
